

Dear bodies;

...our departure.

The material realm has served its purpose,
unto our consciousness, these virtues we bestow,
acquired, indeed, from what we have learned,
during the hairline of time through which we have grown.

Farewell to futile labelling, categorising and designation,
this, the dawn, an acceptance of universal interconnectivity,
casting a twilight glow upon the good in evil, the hate in love, with a clove of intellect and ubiquitous realisation, this is merely relativity.

Do trust in us, that when we're gone, we hold no antipathy,
nor yearning, admiration, nostalgia for solidity,
though in every situation, there are vast chambers,
for sympathy, for affection, compassion and empathy.

SENTIENCE

Anima, Psyche & Soma

'Til this day, the body ruled the soul.
No more! reorder these three:
Anima first, for this is from where we speak,
closely follows; the Psyche. Soma on one knee.

INTERDEPENDENCE

The night sky

Everything exists,
it's a matter of through which lens,
one views the infinite complexity,
of the night sky.

ALMS

The passing gift

Causality, interdependence and empathy teach:
The conscious-race is one,
dissatisfaction is choice, for;
to have lost is to have won.

CAUSALITY

Unbinding knot

Within the meshwork lies,
a justification for all,
no matter which way the knot ties,
shackles and chains will fall.

THE EMPIRICAL

Line of reality

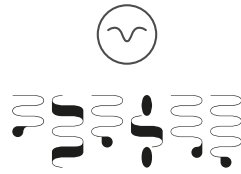

To judge what is real,
what might be and what is not,
utmost veneration of the line,
standards temporarily marked in sand.

PERPETUATION

Rebirth & disperse

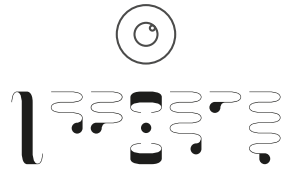

Remove such negativity for;
an end to life and its frustration,
decomposition and dispersion,
offer back, what Soma has taken.

PURITY

Newborn child

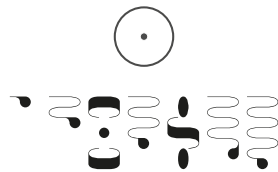

Flawless innocence and truth,
soar and glide in awe,
behind eyelids of a sleeping child,
confirms equality of all.

EMPATHY

Anima within Anima

Presence in the net means;
each and every action has resonance,
compassion for silk thread,
onus in every transference.

CLARITY

Third eye

Through which eye shall be seen,
existence in the present?
In every last one it will gleam,
focus, with no need to augment.
